

VFW post, auxiliary receive memorial plaque honoring Bruno and Linda Stolic

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (May 26, 2026) — The family of Bruno and Linda Stolic, in partnership with Fred and Teri Figueroa, Charlie and Lisa MacKrell, John Poor, and Rick Harse of the Core Civic, Department of Corrections, presented the VFW post and auxiliary with a memorial plaque recognizing the couple's contributions over the past seven years.

Bruno and Linda Stolic were valued members of the auxiliary, and Bruno served as auxiliary president. Their service included thousands of volunteer hours and significant financial support that helped Post 1677 continue serving veterans and the Casa Grande community. During the ceremony, Fred Figueroa said, "We are presenting this plaque in honor of Bruno and Linda Stolic, who contributed so much to this post and will be remembered and missed." Anthony Roche, Linda's son, added, "Thank you; this means so much to our family, and it is a true blessing to be here." Incoming Post Commander Richard Thomas said the plaque will be displayed where Linda often sat and spent time with post and auxiliary members, adding, "We are proud to have known and worked alongside Bruno and Linda over the years. We are honored to receive this plaque."
